Explanation

Family Support Services: FCC recognizes that a child's first years are crucial to life success, and had developed programs that provide learning and developmental support to young children and their families. We successfully support parents and caregivers with unique needs as they nurture and raise their children, by addressing the full range of the child's social, emotional, and cognitive requirements. Participants were served through a variety of Family Support programs beginning with prenatal programs; programs serving infants, toddlers and their parents/caregivers; health and wellness programming; intensive case management and family advocacy; community events; and more. Educational Services: Our Education programs provide vital, high quality early childhood education and supplemental programs for children in preschool and grades K-5. Hundreds of children participated in our Education programming, including our family pre-school readiness program for 3-4 year olds; our licensed Pre-K; our afterschool Homework Club for children in K-5th grades; our Summer Academic Enrichment program; and our Saturday Chinese School which provides 3 levels of Mandarin language instruction. Healthy Connections: We work collaboratively with local populations to identify relevant needs and solutions, including the special health and wellness needs of pregnant mothers and parents/caregivers of infants and young children. By working with parents/caregivers during the first years of children's lives in a culturally sensitive and community inclusive way, FCC alleviates the stressors that frequently impair child development while providing opportunities for families to build strong homes in which to raise healthy children. Hundreds of participants were served through a variety of Healthy Connections programs including disease prevention workshops and clinics; exercise classes; healthy eating, nutrition and cooking classes; peer-support activities; and more.
