

BLOOM SHABOOM

MARCH 23, 2025

1 Burrows St, San Francisco, CA 94134

Family Connections Centers operates two family resource centers in San Francisco. For 30 years, we have provided crucial services, education, and resources to thousands of low-income children and families each year. Our mission is to support healthy families and build thriving communities.

Our community and impact:

601,500+ participant hours provided annually	90% of our families qualify as very or extremely low-income
2,500+ participants served each year	74% of participants identify as English language learners
30+ interconnected, participant-driven programs	67% of adult participants were born outside of the US

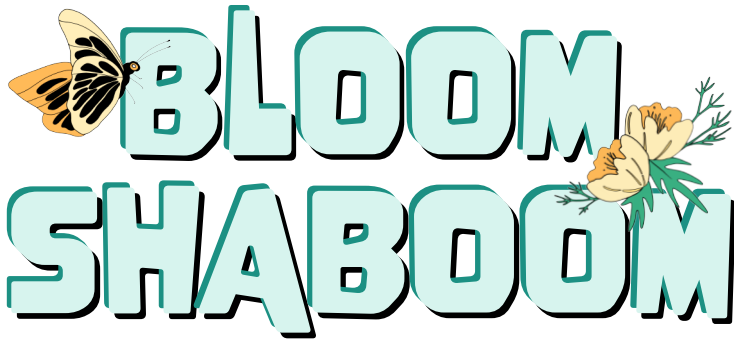

On March 23, we will host the annual Bloom Shaboom, a fundraiser and celebration of our work and community. We are excited to again welcome over 700 attendees to the beautiful Portola Greenway for a day of live music, gardening activities, art-making, food and drinks, and more. Our guests will include participants from our centers; community members from throughout the Bay Area; city and state officials; and leaders in the education, family support, and health fields.

Bloom Shaboom sponsorships directly support our Healthy Connections Initiative, which works to address the disparities in mental and physical health for low-income families. This program serves over 500 children in San Francisco with health and nutrition education, cooking classes, exercise and dance activities, and nature-based learning. Participating children build healthy habits, have reduced rates of disease, and improve their mental and emotional wellness. Your partnership has a significant impact on our community and helps us continue this important work.
